and the only place where the genuine article can be obtained.

MRS ADAMS has recently returned from Paris, where, among the lions and beauties of France, she has spent a year in perfecting the features of the French-Woman Cornet, adapting it to the necessities of the peculiarly delicate and tender skin of the American woman, and is happy to think in this effort she has been eminently successful, and thus presenting both refinement and economy. The Cornet will be worn continually in the chest never before attained in any thing similar popular. The next consideration is its price, at being as low as the most ordinary and cheap of other manufactures, whilst the style, quality of texture surpasses other goods hitherto known. It almost entirely obviates the necessity for sale, the HARLEY CORSET, of Boston Agent above.

Mrs Adams has her store for sale on Washington street, near the corner of State street, by which they may be seen by any lady who visits their place than the Cornet Warehouse,
